

DANIELLE PERRETT - Fact Sheet

Instrument: Harp

Born: London, England

Lives: Suffolk, England

Latest CD: The Firebird's Feather (Russian Romantic Harp Music) BTKA 0603

Specialisms: As well as the modern concert harp, Danielle often performs on her period harps from c.1800 and 1840.

Label: Beartramka

Summary: Danielle has recorded many CDs on various labels, but set up Beartramka with her husband in 2000 to publish music and recordings. The Firebird's Feather is a collection of exquisite harp pieces by mostly little-known Russian composers. The two exceptions are a Prelude by Rachmaninov (who is well-known) and the title track in Russian style by her husband, David Gough (who is not Russian!)

Danielle is a highly respected concert harpist who has delighted audiences and given many masterclasses around the world, and her recordings have achieved critical acclaim.
